

Link Alternative Screening and Route Identification

- Links will be screened based on additional environmental and engineering analysis, as well as agency/public input
- Links will be combined to form complete transmission line route alternatives between the proposed switchyard and proposed Rosemont Substation